To Stay Free Of Moscow Rule

U.S. Sells 135 Saber Jets To Commie Yugoslavia

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Friday the United States has sold 135 F86D Saber jet fighters to Yugoslavia to help that Communist country stay free of Moscow's domination.

In connection with the sale, eight Yugoslav air force men are being trained at Perrin Air Force Base in Texas—four as pilots and four as maintenance men.

Penna. To Ship $11 Million In Coal To Europe Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has contracted with a German importer to supply $11,500,000 worth of Pennsylvania hard coal to American military bases in Europe.

This information was given Friday to Sen. Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania Republican, who described the order as a shot in the arm for the mining industry in his state.

In Wilkes-Barre, Pa., it was called the largest single order for anthracite in the history of the industry.

From 15 Pennsylvania mines will come 440,134 tons of coal, to be exported by the Foreston Coal Co. of New York.

The order for American anthracite is the first under a change in policy announced a short while ago by President Kennedy.

Heretofore, coal for armed forces installations in West Germany has been bought from European sources.

Harry W. Bradbury, president of the Glen Alden Coal Co. and chairman of the Anthracite Producers Committee, said in Wilkes-Barre the order will add about $5 million to mine payrolls.

Producers sharing in the benefits include, besides Glen Alden and its subsidiaries, the following:

Local Firms
Moffat, Pompay and Peca Anthracites, the Pagnotti interests, among them the Wilkes-Barre Coal Sales Co. and Lehigh Navigation.

Other Pennsylvania concerns that will produce coal under the contract are:

The Greenwood Mining Company, Reading Anthracite Coal Co. of St. Nicholas, Harry E. Coal Co. of Swoyersville, Mammoth Coal Co. of Raven Run, Indian Head Coal Co. of Tremont, Lehigh Valley Anthracite of Hazleton, and the Honeybrook Mines of Audenried.

The contract for delivery of the coal was given to the Shipping and Coal Co. of Rotterdam and Mannheim.

The production of the coal on this side of the Atlantic, the announcement said, "will directly benefit the anthracite coal producing regions in the United States."

The announcement added that the awarding of the contract was in line with the administration's balance of payments program, aimed at reducing the spending of gold dollars overseas.

Kennedys Will Host Trumans
WASHINGTON (AP)—President and Mrs. Kennedy will entertain former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman on an overnight visit at the White House Nov. 1.

A dinner for about 40 guests will be given in honor of the Trumans that evening, Mrs. Kennedy's press secretary announced.

The Trumans will stay overnight in the executive mansion.

Good Morning!
Nobody knows the exact age of the human race, but everyone knows that it is old enough to know better.

U.S. Warns Reds On Border Acts

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
BERLIN (AP)—In a sharp protest Friday to Soviet officials, the U.S. Command warned "against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct" of East German border guards, a spokesman said.

The guards earlier in the day poured round after round of machinegun and rifle fire into Berlin's American sector when nine truck-borne refugees broke through the Communist fence.

None of the U.S. military and West Berlin police who rushed to the wooded scene was reported hurt in the hour-long shooting in early morning half-light. They did not return the fire.

Delivers Protest

Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant in Berlin, drove to Soviet headquarters at Karlshorst in East Berlin to deliver the protest to the Soviet commandant, Col. A. I. Solovoyev.

The American spokesman said Watson "warned against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct of the Vopos (East German People's Police)."

Watson also protested to the Soviets about other flagrant incidents which recently affected the peace and security of the American sector.

The Western allies do not recognize East Germany's Communist regime and deal only with the regime in matters involving the East German police. Soviet officials usually refer such protests to the East Germans and take no other action.

East German police again opened fire in the evening when two East Berliners fled into the French sector near Bernauerstrasse. West Berlin officials said the two escaped unhurt across railroad sidings near the border.

East German guards stopped firing as soon as the pair had succeeded in crossing the border and did not shoot into the French sector.

Western officials called the early morning shooting one of the gravest of the almost daily incidents reported along the 100-mile barbed wire and concrete wall enclosing West Berlin.

The Communists, said a top-ranking Allied officer, "are becoming more and more insolent."

Some 250 shots were fired, one policeman estimated. Dozens of fresh bullet holes later were counted at eye-level height in trees 30 or 40 yards from the fence.

The nine scared refugees, ages 19 to 23, all former communists to West Berlin, rammed their truck into the double line of barbed wire where the East German border cuts across the Machowstrasse in suburban Zehlendorf.

Amid a hail of fire, the truck snapped the wire but became stalled between two concrete posts. The refugees scrambled out and raced to cover in American territory with bullets whizzing.

West Berlin police arrived on the scene, and within minutes two loads of U.S. Military Police drove up.

"Stay away from the border or we will shoot," shouted an East German policeman.

Seconds later the Communists opened up with rapid-fire rifles in the dim light between 5 and 6 a.m. A truck and an armored personnel carrier brought additional East German police and they fired.

U.S. military and West Berlin police defied the warnings to keep back and did not take cover until they had made certain no injured refugees were lying near the truck.

"It's a miracle that we had no casualties," said a Western policeman.

Autopsy Shows Reading Girl, 5, Was Strangled

READING, Pa. (AP) — An autopsy completed Friday established that five-year-old Ann Darlington was strangled but not mistreated sexually. The child's partly-nude body was found Thursday in a wooded area near her home in the exclusive Hamden Heights section.

Michael Moore, a 13-year-old Reading boy who has a history of running away from his home, was charged with murder. He is being held without bail in Berks County prison.

Dr. George P. Desjardins of St. Joseph's Hospital, who performed the autopsy, said there were no signs that little Ann had been criminally assaulted.

Moore denied under questioning that he had molested the child sexually. He said he knocked her to the ground, carried her into the woods and strangled her when she threatened to tell her brother that Moore planned to sleep in a fort the brother had built.

Soviets Charge 'One Man' (American) Is Ruling U.N.

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin charged Friday that "one man"—evidently meaning American Andrew W. Cordier—had seized power illegally over the U.N. Secretariat.

Zorin, at a 1½-hour news conference, alleged that the unidentified official was running the 4,400-member Secretariat of the 101-nation organization in a one-sided way.

The 60-year-old Cordier, long a key figure in the organization, declined to comment on the charges. A spokesman for the Secretariat denied that any one man had taken charge among the 29 U.N. undersecretaries.

No Change
In a statement, he said there had been "no change whatsoever in the responsibilities" of the undersecretaries, but they were consulting among themselves much more than before Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld died in a plane crash in Africa Sept. 18.

Zorin said the United Nations would collapse "if the path of nonagreed decisions is taken" in the Secretariat.

He reiterated the Soviet Union's willingness to have a single acting secretary-general take charge temporarily instead of the three-man board, or troika, that it wants to be installed eventually.

He said the acting secretary-general should choose three, four, six or seven other secretaries of specified nationalities for principal advisers and should promise before his election to consult them and seek mutual agreement with them on major questions. But he stressed that the top man should make his own decisions and should not be subject to their veto.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, Zorin's opposite number in negotiations on the subject, commented that the United States would "resist the concept of the troika or the ideological division of the world into three blocs."

"I wish Mr. Zorin would not threaten the United Nations with disaster if he does not have his way," he added.

Zorin took issue with the U.S. view that the General Assembly was qualified to name a temporary secretary-general without the prior recommendation of the Security Council.

Zorin said Hammarskjöld had made one-sided decisions without consulting or even informing his assistants, especially Undersecretary George P. Arkadev of the Soviet Union.

Hoffa Questions Red Tag Label On Allied Unions

By GARDNER L. BRIDGE
WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa Friday challenged the Communist-dominated tag which Senate investigators attached to some of his labor union allies.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, defended the mutual assistance pacts his organization has made with Harry Bridges' West Coast Longshoremen's Union and the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union.

"I don't know whether they are Communist dominated or not," Hoffa told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

"There will be no pact between the Teamsters Union and any organization so convicted," he added.

Under Oath
Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called Bridges' union "a Communist organization" and J. G. Sourvine, subcommittee counsel, referred to the Mine Workers as "Communist-dominated."

Hoffa declared at the outset of the hearing that he welcomed a chance to testify under oath that "Hoffa was not a Communist, has not associated with Communists, is not a Communist and never intends to be."

The subcommittee charged in a report in 1958 that Hoffa was being egged on by "Communist conspirators" in his plan to form a powerful alliance of transportation unions, including the East Coast and West Coast longshoremen and the National Maritime Union.

The subcommittee said such an alliance could "strangle the military forces of the nation in the event of war" by paralyzing land and sea transport.

Taking Aims
The subcommittee's parent Judiciary Committee is now considering legislation aimed at making the Teamsters and other transportation unions subject to the anti-trust laws, from which unions are now exempt, and to outlaw interstate transportation strikes.

Hoffa, whose Teamsters Union was expelled from the AFL-CIO in 1957 on corruption charges, denounced Friday's hearing in advance as a "witch hunt" by senators, he described as "hatchet men."

He told the subcommittee he could think of a lot of unions that have been accused in the past of being Communist-dominated, but today are among the most highly respected unions in America. He did not name any.

Deny Rusk Made Commitment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department denied Friday that Secretary of State Dean Rusk made any commitment for the United States to consider a Polish plan for a demilitarized zone in Central Europe.

In fact, press officer Lincoln White said at his news conference, Rusk did not talk about the proposal at all when he met Tuesday with Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki. There had been a published report that Rusk told Rapacki the plan would be studied.

"The fact is that there was only the briefest reference to the plan by the Polish foreign minister and the secretary made no comment on it," White said, adding: "A lot of journalists have had luck."

Operation 'Sky Shield' U.S. Jets By Hundreds Will Zoom Skies Today

By JERRY T. BAULCH
WASHINGTON (AP) — Military jets will zoom through the skies in vast numbers Saturday in the biggest test yet of North America's defenses. During the 12 hours of the test civilian aircraft are ordered to stay on the ground.

It will be a mock war without shooting. But the attacking B-52s and B-1s will hurl themselves against key U.S. and Canadian targets in as realistic a fashion otherwise as possible in this operation called Sky Shield.

This will set into motion the vast defense network—interceptor aircraft, antiaircraft missile stations and supporting stations. They're supposed to react as if they were the real thing, except no triggers are to be pulled.

250,000 Members
Some 250,000 members of the U.S. Air Force, Army and Navy and of Canada's air force will participate. The operations will range over an area of about 14 million square miles.

During the 12 hours—noon to midnight Eastern Standard Time—it will be a different sight than usual—perhaps even busier than normal in some cases—at the commercial airports.

Most airlines are taking advantage of the occasion to hold "open house" at the airports so people can get a close-up look at the airlines' new jets and other craft.

As one airline official explained, it will serve as an excellent advertising gimmick. And it will enable the airlines to fill requests by people who want to sightsee among the planes but can't be permitted to do so during regular busy operations.

The order grounding all nonparticipating civil aircraft was issued by N. E. Halaby, administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency, for safety reasons. He said "enemy" jamming tactics may put out of commission many of the radio navigation aids which guide civilian planes.

Few Gripes
Airline spokesmen were almost unanimous in saying there were few gripes by passengers against not being able to fly on Saturday afternoon and night.

Extra flights were arranged by many of the airlines to handle the Friday and Sunday overflow.

The defense test will be directed from the North American Air Defense Command headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo., by the NORAD commander, Laurence S. Kuter.

It will be observed from the Northeastern regional headquarters of the Air Defense Command at Hancock Field, Syracuse, N.Y., by Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force chief of staff, Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert, Halaby and other top officials.

Growth of Knowledge in God ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Matthew 5:17-20, 38-48; John 16:12-15.

Christ, delivering His Sermon on the Mount, told his followers that He had not come to destroy the laws given the Jews through Moses nor the sayings of the prophets, but to fulfill them and illumine them.—Matthew 5:17.

He taught them not to retaliate against insults, but to "turn the other cheek"; to "give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow to 'turn not away'; to love their enemies and pray for them.—Matthew 5:38-44.

To love only those who love you, Christ said, was no more worthy than the tax-gatherers, who collected as much as they could to line their own pockets. Christians should greet strangers as well as their friends.—Matthew 5:46-47.

Thursday of Holy Week Christ promised his disciples growth in knowledge of God through the Holy Spirit, which would invest them all and illumine the truth for them.—John 16:12-15.

Religion Today

Church Music Studied

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

Songs and tunes that people like aren't necessarily fit for the church. After all, the objective is to please God, not a human audience. That's the conclusion of a new study on religious music, its uses and acceptability in worship. Declaring that it's a mistake to make "the attractiveness of music to the worshippers the principal criterion," the study says: "The congregation does not—or should not—come to church to be entertained. Essentially, the music is not addressed to the congregation, but to God."

The extensive study, drawn up by an Episcopal Church commission headed by the Rt. Rev. James P. De Wolfe, bishop of Long Island, said church music suffers from certain "chronic ills."

"These are sentimentalism, the sentimentalism and virtuosity. The church must ever be alert to prevent these from developing either through weak and effeminate melodies or harmonizations, over-dramatic interpretations or compositions which can only be produced by virtuoso soloists or choral groups."

Reasons given for avoiding this kind of music include: "Sentimentalism may 'move' people emotionally," but has no "effect on the will." "Melodramatic interpretations may be highly entertaining but lacking in Godward direction." "Virtuoso-type artistic numbers rob 'the congregation of all participation,' producing the atmosphere of a show."

At the same time, the study says church music "does not exist for itself alone" and must be secondary to prayers and worship and not draw "undue attention to itself."

Some kinds of music is apt to do just that, the study said. "It is quite obvious that if the lilt or thump of the meter in the music is obtrusive, one is more apt to associate it with the dance than with the church."

Nevertheless, it was concluded that "no power on earth is more potent than good church music in inspiring 'the faithful with higher motives and nobler resolves.'"

Here is the problem that the adult "members" must face: Directors salary, $3,900; equipment and improvement, $370; office supplies and expenses, $600; YFCC and donations, $250; honorarium for rally and expenses, $1,000; advertising and promotional material, $900; telephone, $180, and operating expenses, $600. A total of $7,800 for the year.

THE Blessed Virgin Sodality and the Catechetical Class will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock mass at St. Matthews Church, Sunday.

Parson To Parson

By R. G. MAC LEOD

MONROE County is growing, and with this growth comes "growing pains." Youth for Christ in Monroe County has assumed responsibility of a full-time director for the first time. This organization is not supported by any church, as such, but by parents, teen-agers and church members who believe in "Winning Teens for Christ and Speaking Teenage Language."

What a wonderful way to show our youth that being a Christian is fun—and they do! I've been to their picnics and hayrides! These kids aren't "square"—they are real sharp. Here is the problem that the adult "members" must face: Directors salary, $3,900; equipment and improvement, $370; office supplies and expenses, $600; YFCC and donations, $250; honorarium for rally and expenses, $1,000; advertising and promotional material, $900; telephone, $180, and operating expenses, $600. A total of $7,800 for the year.

THE Youth Fellowship and Sunday School of the Swiftwater Methodist Church will hold a Halloween Party Saturday, Oct. 21, in the social rooms of the church.

The estimated income for the year is $1,000 leaving a balance needed of $6,800.

Now here is a real challenge—the adult "boosters" are very few in number and not in the higher income bracket—yet, those that can, give and those who cannot afford to give pray hard. Here is Faith in action. So few, so much to do, and it will be done!

Worth it? When you see young adults in high school carrying the Bible on top of their school books—you know it is.

Youth for Christ is working for you too, Pastor, by inspiring the young people in the Saturday night rallies to be in church Sundays.

THE Youth Fellowship and Sunday School of the Swiftwater Methodist Church will hold a Halloween Party Saturday, Oct. 21, in the social rooms of the church.

Today's Lesson: Growth Of Knowledge

By N. SPEER JONES

IN THIS lesson, man's growth in knowledge of God is traced from the original Mosaic law given the early Israelites (referred to in Matthew 5:17-19), through the basic teachings of God's flesh-and-blood Son here on earth (Matthew 5:38-48) to the most direct and sublime communication of all, the personal guidance of the Holy Spirit from within the individual (John 16:12-15).

The Mosaic law is so-called because it was given the Israelites through Moses, first at Mt. Sinai. So basically legal was God's first revelation of Himself that the first of five books of the Bible are called by the Jews the Torah, or Book of the Law.

Of this Mosaic law there are two varieties—the fundamental moral laws summarized later by Christ in the Ten Commandments, and the Levitical laws, concerning specifics such as sacrifices, feasts, diet, hygiene, etc.

Christ makes it plain that He did not come to destroy what had been set forth in the Book of the Law, nor by the succeeding prophets. The suggestion is not that the Mosaic law was incomplete, but, rather, that Christ would elaborate upon it and make it more meaningful.

John Broadus (in "Peloubet's Select Notes," p. 342) explains the origin of the words "Jot" and "Tittle" (Matthew 5:18). Jot (Greek jota) means the Hebrew letter lod (l in English). It is much smaller, and so is apt to be overlooked. As for "tittle," it was substituted by the Reformation martyr John Wyclif for the Greek word meaning "horn," denoting a tiny pointing on certain Hebrew letters. Wyclif, realizing that "horn" would not be understood in the proper sense, used "tittle," which means a very small object.

It is suggested that the "least commandments" are those hardest to pinpoint, yet greatest in consequence, such as control of thoughts, words and desires. No one can teach a commandment effectively if he breaks it himself.

The "scribes and Pharisees" claimed to keep the law, but kept only the letter of the law. Christ tells us this is not enough for the kingdom of heaven. The righteousness sought is not pious perfection but basis rightness.

From these basic principles Christ proceeds to examples of Godlike living (Matthew 5:38-48). The much-argued passage on turning the other cheek is often interpreted as a doctrine of non-resistance, even to bodily injury and death. A more widely accepted view argues that the smiling of the cheek refers not to bodily injury but to insult.

As for loving our enemies, we are not expected to make criminals or evil men our friends; rather we are to love them in the sense of trying to understand them and do them good.

In verse 48, the meaning of perfect is not sinlessness, but uprightness and sincerity. In the passage from John, Christ promises the coming of the Holy Spirit to his apostles. In a larger sense, it is a promise to all of us, that the Holy Spirit can guide us in perfect truth if we can but grow enough in our knowledge of God.

Bethlehem Is Site For Convention

STEPHEN F. Bortlik, president of Jehovah's Witnesses announced last night that the East Stroudsburg congregation has been invited to attend a Bible convention at the Broughal School Building, Bethlehem, Nov. 17-19.

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, governing agency for Jehovah's Witnesses and sponsor of the assembly, has invited seventeen congregations in Pennsylvania Circuit, number two, to participate in the three-day convention which is designed to analyze and improve the ministerial activity of 1,400 Lehigh Valley Witnesses.

In considering preliminary details with the East Stroudsburg group, Bortlik said, "The convention will have as its theme 'Assist One Another to Do God's Will.'"

The Watchtower Society has appointed Joseph Sain, district minister, to direct the assembly sessions which will be made up of discourses, missionary experiences and demonstrations of Bible teaching methods.

Mr. Sain will also be the featured speaker and will deliver the principal convention address on Nov. 19 at 3 p.m.

Arrangements for travel, rooming, selection of speakers, etc., are the responsibility of Charles P. Homolka, circuit minister, who is expected to assign some of these duties to the local congregation.

Fun and festival are promised during the supper hour, as well as surprises. Jose Consiglio, of Cherry Lane, a native of Argentina, will speak.

At 6:45, the evening service will start. The theme of the program will be, "Latin America." Two short movies will be shown. The Pocono Male Chorus will sing.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The countdown has been completed. At the word "zero," electronic miracles happen. The rocket zooms skyward, and seems to penetrate the infinite.

But it hasn't. Man's greatest efforts fall far short of solving the mystery that is life itself. The answer is known only unto God. And man's greatest troubles still concern not the universe but man himself, and his fellowmen.

The greatest scientists today realize even more acutely than most of us the limitations of mankind. From deep, personal experience they know how desperately man needs God's love and His guidance. And they know, too, that no matter how "invincible" their rockets may become, in the end, true peace can be achieved only by God's own workings within the hearts and minds of men.

Pray for this kind of peace in church next Sunday.

Expand The Jails

Agitation to put more teeth into the anti-trust laws is between sessions activity in Washington, these days, and the proposed teeth can stand some examination.

Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, spoke the other day in favor of Senator Estes Kefauver's bill to slam the jail doors on executive whose employees violate the anti-trust laws, if they had "probable cause" to know that their employees were up to.

This is a new principle of law for the U. S. Heretofore we have jailed people only when we could prove that they were themselves guilty. If this bill should become law, and if the idea spreads, prisons will become America's greatest growth industry.

For if it is fair to jail a business executive for the behavior of a subordinate, because he is presumed to have had the opportunity of finding him out before the FBI does, it is equally fair and desirable to put other citizens in jail under similar circumstances.

Examples leap rapidly to mind. Appointees of two recent Presidents of the U. S. have gone to jail for criminal offenses committed in office. Appointees of many mayors similarly have been found guilty. If the Kefauver principle were applied, the politicians in overall charge would become the cell-mates of businessmen who also were "presumed" to know what their subordinates were doing.

In many parts of the world, now and in the past, despots have been in the habit of jailing or even executing not only offenders, but also their families and friends — particularly in political cases. One of the triumphs of Anglo-Saxon law, from which American law stems, was the banning of this unjust practice.

The return of "guilt by association" could touch everyone, business executive or not. Wives could be jailed for failing to detect crimes committed by their husbands. Parents could be jailed for sins of their children.

Present penalties for anti-trust violations range up to one year in jail on each separate count of the indictment and for the company up to compulsory liquidation, in addition to heavy fines. It's hard to see why stiffer penalties are needed. But it is impossible to see why a law is required to jail persons against whom no crime is proved.

Innovation In Budgeting

If Gov. Lawrence's anticipation of a general fund budget balance is realized at the conclusion of the current fiscal year, he will have accomplished a feat that has not been achieved in 14 years in Pennsylvania. A balanced budget, setting the foundation for sounder economic planning, should be hailed by all commonwealth residents.

The governor and his budget secretary arrive at their conclusion on the strength of conservative estimates, based on some expansion of the economy. Republicans argue that there may be a $30 million surplus, sufficient to finance educational improvements which were abandoned when the legislature failed to agree on a tax. But Pennsylvania's experience with inflated revenue estimates in past years suggests that acceptance of a more conservative estimate be a more prudent move.

A balanced budget has been one of the governor's major goals. The $141 million deficit he inherited from the Leader administration was pared to $33 million at the beginning of this year and this red-ink entry may be wiped out if current estimates are proved correct. While the administration is to be commended for careful budget management, applause also is due Republicans in the legislature who helped approve the governor's financial program. This approach to fiscal soundness has been a bipartisan one.

When the legislature meets next year, it should start off the new fiscal period with the books all even. This means that all available tax revenue may be allotted to governmental services without a part of it being diverted to paying off a sizeable debt. All Pennsylvanians thus will be beneficiaries of a sound financial program.

The Soviet Program

Each time a Soviet Communist Party program is enunciated, thousands of words are written, which are read with the greatest care by Communists throughout the world, and by the experts in all foreign offices. The Party Congress program is canonical and deviation from it means counter-revolution and can result in expulsion from the party which often involves serious consequences for the individual concerned. For some, it has meant death.

The Congress is to be held this month and it will go all the important Communist leaders from all parts of the world. Members of the party will watch who sits on the platform, for not only does the presence on the platform but the position of the individual, the propensity to Khrushchev, determine a man's importance and his future.

The document is a paean to Soviet achievements:

"The great October Socialist Revolution ushered in a new era in the history of mankind, the era of the downfall of capitalism and the establishment of Communism. Socialism has triumphed in the Soviet Union and has achieved decisive victories in the people's democracies; socialism has become a cause of practical significance to hundreds of millions of people, and the bearer of the revolutionary movement of the working class throughout the world."

Further, the Platform says:

"One-third of mankind is building a new life under the banner of scientific Communism. The first contingents of the working class to shake off obsolete oppression are facilitating victory for fresh contingents of their class brothers. The Socialist world is expanding; the capitalist world is shrinking. Socialism will inevitably succeed capitalism everywhere. Such is the objective law of social development. Imperialism is powerless to check the irreversible process of emancipation."

It is this statement which will have an enormous influence in the former colonial countries. For when the Communists associate themselves with anti-imperialism, they take in a good part of the world that has been freed from colonialism, much of it through American aid. Thus the Afro-Asian nations are included in the success of Communism whereas, as a matter of fact, they have, most of them, not yet become stabilized in any political or economic system.

To Khrushchev that does not matter because he assumes power wherever he can; he accepts success wherever it suits his purposes. For instance, in the statement of the fundamental struggle, the Platform says not a word of the enormous progress that the worker has made in Western Europe and the United States. Instead, the party Platform says:

"Capitalism, by concentrating millions of workers in its factories, socializing the process of labor, imparts a social character to production; nevertheless it is the capitalists who appropriate the fruits of labor. This fundamental character to production, the contradiction between the social character of production and the private — capitalist form of appropriation — manifests itself in production anarchy and in the fact that the purchasing power of society falls short of the expansion of production and leads periodically to destructive economic crises."

This is an interesting statement because it recognizes the socializing process of production in the capitalist countries. In the United States, for instance, increasingly the worker is an owner of the industry in which he works or of other industries. Some industries are owned by labor unions. In a Marxist country, all industry is owned by the state monopolistically and the worker only participates in ownership in the sense that as a citizen, he has certain rights within the state.

Furthermore in a Marxist country the worker is deprived of the most valuable fruits of production, namely, the choice of selection of consumer goods, for it is the state alone which determines which should be made and what should be used and in what quantities. And production is based upon the necessities of the state not upon the desires of the individual, which means that the state may deprive its own people of what they desire to give it to another nation for political reasons.

Freedom of choice of consumer goods the Platform calls production anarchy. For instance, why use steel to make automobiles when it is advantageous to the state to use steel for the manufacture of weapons of terror and war? In the Soviet concept of a planned society, only that is produced, the existence of which benefits the state. The individual does not matter. He is a statistical unit on a chart, a creature to serve the necessities of the state.

10 Years Ago

Monroe County voters were to decide on the Sunday movie issue. The question: To be or not to be.

It's the tip of the hat to the William Phipps on their 10th anniversary.

American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps from East Stroudsburg took first place in the Americanism Day Parade in Milford.

20 Years Ago

Two New Jersey people were injured slightly when their cars collided at the intersection of Routes 209 and 12 in Sojota. Trooper Evan Chaplin of the Brookheads barracks was the investigating officer.

Horace Brewer of Bangor was in Monroe County General Hospital with a brain concussion as the result of a freak accident in Snyder'sville. He was tossed into the air when telephone lines he was working on were suddenly drawn tight.

How many remember in 1921 when W. T. Whitaker of Mountaintown was named fire inspector of Monroe County?

Joe Louis passed his physical for the U.S. Army. No date was announced for his induction.

King Saud of Saudi Arabia has a closed circuit teevee setup for his harem. . . . Farah Diba, the Shah of Iran's lovely wife, is fascinated by last year's fad—wigs. . . . A famed playwright defeated The London Daily Mail (out of court) for saying he was paying a young actress "of considerable charm but limited ability" $200 a week to study dramatics. . . . American-born Parisian star Eddie Constantine was hospitalized after one of his races horses bit his derriere.

The Western powers are not unhappy about Syria breaking from Nassar. Because his attempts to repair the damage will keep him from assisting (or egg-ing on) the Algerians in their tussle with France. The latter may come to an understanding, too. . . . The drunken stupors of a well-known producer-director and a famed playwright may amuse some folks, but not some 100 actors and actresses in Ireland. American newsmen in Berlin and London (including Bob Musel of UPI and several Life staffers) told intimates there that they "expect" war by November.

Belgium's Queen Mother (Countess of Mora) is giving Queen Fabiola a few migraines. Because mamma allegedly doesn't leave the Biarritz gaming tables until dawn (every day) and her winnings are not noted. . . . Churchill's constituents in Woodford (Essex) are grumbling that Sir Winston should resign. "Because he hasn't spoken five words in the House of Commons since assuming office." (Ingrates!) . . . England's League of Moral Cleanliness has condemned the nursery rhyme "Goody, Goody Gander." . . . ## Defends Educators

Editor, The Daily Record:

The editorial "Faulty School Reasoning," quoted from the Philadelphia Bulletin, which appeared in The Daily Record, October 5, 1961, calls for comment from someone. I may be presumptuous in assuming that I am the one, although I do believe I have a background of experience which might justify an opinion.

While the editorial is headed "Opinions of Other Editors," its appearance in the Daily Record might indicate that the local editor is favorably impressed with its content.

Comments On Music

Editor, The Daily Record:

I am not in the habit of writing letters to the editor, but I cannot refrain from writing this, following my reading of Mr. Sokolsky's column in Wednesday's Daily Record.

There are many fine columnists who discuss topics and present viewpoints, and this particular column discusses a topic which has an implication for our own community. Mr. Sokolsky discusses the serious, even tragic possible consequences to music as faced in the contract difficulties of the Metropolitan, the Philadelphia and Philadelphia orchestras. Many of his statements should be underscored, and I hope the column will be widely read by our local citizens.

The column may seem to have little application to our community. However, I feel that it illustrates a problem which the workers in our Community Concert campaigns have faced since 1937. Our local campaign this year was a success, and on Monday night the first concert proved to be an artistic event. It was a success because of the hard, personal work of a few individuals in soliciting and securing memberships. Our workers have ever been faced with the question—"Who will the artists be?" Our answer, at least in part, has had to be—"We don't know. It depends on you."

As Mr. Sokolsky points out, "the violinist may be as good a fiddler as Isaac Stern or Zino Francescatti, but not enough customers are willing to prove that it is so." It is too bad that we Americans so frequently are interested in the name, the reputation, or the glamor of Hollywood, TV or Broadway.

May we not hope that we can develop a larger body of citizens who want good music and who will gladly support it. We have made much progress, but there is yet much room for growth. Remember, we may be able to afford only that "15th" violinist, but he will still be a fine musician. A violinist friend once said to me—"The symphony orchestra is full of virtuosos. The only difference is they have not had the publicity." Here's to good listening.

Suggests Feature

Editor, The Daily Record:

Since my arrival here to join the faculty of East Stroudsburg State College, I have read your newspaper daily from front page to back page. My general impression is that the Daily Record satisfies the community's interests except in one important matter: the "town and gown" relationship.

Of course, newsworthy college events are funneled to your newspaper through our public relations officer, Miss Hastings; and this is an important kind of liaison. What I miss, however, is a column or feature devoted to issues and problems that the college and town community share. There is a basic need. I submit, for discussion on such topics as: How the professional, business, and technical townspeople can contribute to the learning experience of our students; how the faculty can clarify, deepen, and broaden the community's approach to vital issues at home and abroad; and how the faculty can work with community leaders for promoting greater cultural activity in this area.

Once such a column or feature were introduced, there are no limits to the stimulation and enrichment it could provide your readers.

Inside You And Yours

The Acid Myth

By Burton H. Fern, M. D.

Doubting Thomas: Doc, I've got an acid condition!
M. D.: What's that?
D. T.: You know — too much acid in my system.

M. D.: That's almost impossible. What are acids anyway?
D. T.: I don't know—what?
M. D.: Most chemicals contain atoms or atom groups married to each other. The groom—usually a metal—marries a female like chloride, sulfate or bicarbonate. He gives her one of his negative electrical charges for a wedding band.

D. T.: So?
M. D.: In solution the couple separates—with the wife still carrying that extra negative charge. Mr. Metal's missing charge shows he's married.
D. T.: What are acids?
M. D.: Instead of metal, the man in the acid family is always hydrogen. The more hydrogen present, the more acid the solution.

D. T.: How about acids and metals inside the body?
M. D.: In body fluids, sodium, potassium and calcium are matched with chloride, sulfate, bicarbonate and phosphate.
D. T.: What causes an acid system?
M. D.: Any shortage of masculine metals or excess of negatively-charged female groups. Extra hydrogen can substitute for the missing metal, making the system more acid. But normal kidneys quickly pour out excess acids along with hydrogen.

D. T.: Sodium and potassium actually protect against acidity. They replace hydrogen.
Hydrogen Steps In
M. D.: Right. And those negatively-charged sulfates, bicarbonates and chlorides are acids. When metal's scarce, hydrogen has to support them.
D. T.: What about acid fruits?
M. D.: The body quickly burns fruit acids, leaving extra sodium and potassium in the system. Not eating makes you acid.
D. T.: How's that?

M. D.: You have to burn body fat, which turns into acids that circulate around before they're destroyed. Without insulin to burn sugar, diabetes-sufferers use up fats, too. Accumulating acids causes serious sickness—not vague symptoms.

They're Useful
D. T.: Sweets help fight illness?
M. D.: Right?—they prevent acid complications. Fruits and juices battle acidity with sodium, potassium and fruit sugar.

D. T.: This acid talk has given me a headache.
M. D.: Here, take this acid—acetylsalicylic acid: You call it aspirin.

About Town

A New Product
A Park Avenue matron took her six-year-old daughter to see a large stable in the Bedford Hills sector of Westchester. The youngster's attention was captured immediately by a newborn colt.

W. F. Wary, E-Burg, Dies

WILLIAM F. Wary, Sr. a Gilberton resident until eight years ago when he moved to East Stroudsburg, died Oct. 7 at Schuylkill County Institutional District Hospital where he was admitted Sept. 30.

Born in Ringtown Nov. 14, 1881, Mr. Wary was the son of the late Frank and Almerna Greaser Wary. He lived most of his life in Ringtown and Gilberton.

He was employed as a blacksmith for 35 years at Gilberton Colliery and prior to retirement in 1951 was a machinist at St. Nicholas breaker. He was a member of East Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

His wife, Elizabeth Bradbury Wary, died in 1940.

Surviving are the following children, William, Jr., Gilberton; Mable, wife of Russell Kessler, Ashland, R.D.; Ruth, wife of Charles Swedish, East Stroudsburg; Thomas, East Stroudsburg; There are seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. A sister, Mrs. Stella Bleu, Norristown, also survives.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon from Niece Funeral Home, Frackville. Rev. Frank Carpenter, pastor of Frackville Methodist Church conducted the services. Interment was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Tamaqua.

YMCA Secretary Plans To Retire

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—E. Haines Kent, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association since 1943, announced Thursday he will retire next June. Kent served YMCA's in Coatesville, Clearfield and Hazleton before joining the state group as field secretary in 1937.

Head-On Crash Kills Athlete

READING, Pa. (AP)—A head-on crash of a milk truck and a tractor-trailer on fog-shrouded Allentown Pike Thursday killed 19-year-old Cary H. Weber, who starred in football, swimming, baseball and track before his graduation last June from nearby Muhlenberg Township High School.

Weber was driving the milk truck. His parents run a dairy in Muhlenberg Township.

Arthur Becker, 58, of Fleetwood R. D. 3, the other driver, was reported in good condition at Reading's Community General Hospital.

Fund Drive To Defray Lights Cost

ANYONE desiring to contribute to the East Stroudsburg Christmas Light Fund may do so by sending their contribution to CHRISTMAS LIGHT FUND, P. O. Box 78, East Stroudsburg.

Herman Smeltz, chairman of the fund said that all contributions will be acknowledged by the committee.

The money raised will be used to defray the $2,000 needed this year to purchase and install the seven new light garlands which will be used to light Washington St. to the inter-borough bridge.

Father, Son Killed On 'Pike

WHITE HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—A father and his 14-month-old son were killed when their car plunged off the northeast extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Thursday.

The father, Charles Patti, 23, Phillipsburg, N. J., was killed outright. His son, Samuel Patti, died later in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, turnpike police said.

The wife and mother of the victims, Ruth, 23, is reported in good condition in the same hospital. Turnpike police said their southbound car went through a guard rail, plunged over a 30-foot embankment, and slammed into a tree about six miles north of the White Haven interchange.

Fireman Held On Arson Charge

HARRISBURG (AP)—Joseph S. Fox Jr., a 19-year-old volunteer fireman from nearby Lawnton, was held for grand jury action Thursday on charges of conspiracy to commit arson and contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Fox pleaded innocent to both charges at a hearing. He was ordered held in lieu of $1,000 bond. According to police, two boys, 15 and 16 years of age, who were arrested Tuesday on charges of setting four different fires and sending out a false alarm, implicated Fox.

All four fires were put out before any serious damage resulted, officers added.

Press Winners Announced

NEW YORK (AP)—The Columbia University Scholastic Press Association announced Thursday awards to more than 1,500 schools in its 27th annual yearbook contest.

Ratings were based on a 1,000 point scoring system. Highest honor was a medalist rating. First place was 850 to 1,000 points, second place 750-849, third 650-749 and fourth under 650.

Pennsylvania winners included: Offert yearbooks: Junior-senior high, 1,001 or more—Second: Windber Area High, Bloomsburg Area High.

Junior-senior high, 1,000 or less—Third: Towanda Valley Joint High.

The 112th is one of the Air National Guard units ordered overseas within the next few weeks.

Air Force spokesmen declined, for security reasons, to be more specific now about the unit's destination.

The 112th has the mission of keeping up communications with radar and radio with the tactical planes in a combat situation, guiding them to targets aloft or on the ground.

Normal manpower for a unit such as the 112th is slightly more than 300.

Illegitimate Births Rise In Monroe During Year

ILLEGITIMATE births in Monroe County were on the increase during the past year in comparison with the preceding year, records of the State Department of Health showed yesterday.

A check by the Record with the department on its recently completed statistical survey for the state as a whole disclosed the fact that illegitimate births in the county last year numbered 26 as compared with 23 such births recorded in the previous year.

Percentage-wise this means that 3.2 per cent of the 1960 Monroe County births were illegitimate, which as a point of interest compares with the statewide illegitimacy birth rate of 4.4 per cent.

The percentage figure for the past year for Monroe County was up slightly from 2.8 per cent illegitimacy in 1959, according to records of the Department of Health.

TOASTMASTER—J. Joseph McCluskey, Stroudsburg attorney, will be the toastmaster at the Communion breakfast of the Knights of Columbus to be held Sunday at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Leffler Named Unit's President

EUGENE Leffler of Delaware Water Gap was elected president of the Monroe County unit of the Monroe-Carbon Branch, Pennsylvania Association for the Blind, at a recent meeting of the association.

Others elected were Miss Elizabeth Martin, Dr. William Simmons, Emerson M. Rahn, James P. Smith, Carolyn Smith, Judge Fred Davis, and Mrs. Hazel Albert.

Brother Kills Brother At Harvey's Lake

HARVEYS LAKE, Pa. (AP)—Police tried to piece together Friday the elements of a dispute between brothers that led to a fight and the slaying of one.

Gerald Cadden, 38-year-old veteran of World War II who suffers from a lung condition, is charged with murder for the pistol slaying Thursday night of his younger brother, Stanley, 33, of nearby Scranton.

State police said Gerald fired twice at Stanley after the latter broke into a locked kitchen and struck Gerald and his wife, knocking both of them down.

The cause of their alleged bitterness, a squabble over an estate left by their mother who died 15 years ago. When the will was filed in Lackawanna County Court it listed only $1,000 in cash and real estate valued at $3,000.

But investigating officers asserted the property apparently was considerable. Beyond this they refused to go.

Gerald said in his statement to police that he shot in self-defense.

Morrisey Low Bidder On Area Job

JAMES D. Morrisey, Inc., of Philadelphia was unofficial low bidder for construction of a stretch of highway from Saylorburg to Snyder'sville.

Morrisey's low bid was $3,398,684.44. The second official low bid was received by the State Department of Highways by #1 Contracting Co. of Pennsylvania of West Pittston. Its bid was $3,528,349.61.

The new section of highway will begin at the terminus of the present Wind Gap Bypass which runs from lower Wind Gap to Saylorburg. The new route will begin at Saylorburg and run northward to Snyder'sville.

Eventually the route will connect with Interstate 80 at an area south of Bartonsville.

Morrisey, Inc., also constructed the first portion of the Wind Gap Bypass (project number 796-1). The new project is labeled number 796-2.

The construction will include L.R. 796, and 164 from near Snyder'sville to south of Saylorburg. 6.65 miles, divided highway, concrete pavement 24 feet wide and variable on each side of 20-foot divisor, five bridges; this project will extend the Wind Gap bypass to Snyder'sville, limited access highway.

Halloween Parade Tuesday

THE annual Halloween parade, co-sponsored by the Pocono Mountains Junior Chamber of Commerce and Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assns., will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Theme of the parade will be "The Good Old Days" and persons participating are asked to consider the theme while choosing costumes.

The parade route and further details will be announced by John Kuhns, Jaycee parade chairman.

Saylorburg Native Dies At 83

OSCAR F. Arnold, 83, a native of Saylorburg, died at his home, 35 Belvidere St., Nazareth, at 10:45 p. m. Friday.

A retired carpenter, he had been employed by the Messinger Manufacturing Co., Tatamy, N. J., and Bell Electric Co., Nazareth. He was the son of Joseph H. and Emma J. Getz Arnold and had lived in Nazareth 35 years.

He was a member of Patriotic Order, Sons of America 307, Saylorburg, and the United Church of Christ.

Surviving are four brothers, Elmer, Wilbert and Victor, Easton, and Calvin Arnold, Saylorburg, and three sisters, Mrs. Mabel Ginter, Nazareth; Mrs. Clyde Dietrich, Saylorburg, and Mrs. Lulu Kresge, Collingswood, N. J.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Schmidt Funeral Home, Nazareth.

Dairy products provided more of the American food supply in 1960 than any other category—approximately 28% of the total. Manufacturers of dairy products invested over $18 million last year in national newspaper advertising to tell consumers about the benefits of their products.

Canadensis Methodists To Cite 107th

BARRETT — On Layman's Sunday the Canadensis Methodist Church will continue recognition of their 107th anniversary at the 10:45 a.m. service.

Laymen of the church will conduct the service and speak on the theme, "What the Church Means To Me". Mrs. Sherwood Reese, Miss Elaine Laeson, and James Brush will discuss the theme.

Officers of the church will participate in the service. Mrs. John D. O'Neill, vice president of the WSCS, will read the scripture. A. H. Wilkinson, lay leader, will lead the responsive reading. Herbert Larson, president of the board of trustees, will lead the opening worship and prayer.

Installation of the officers of the WSCS will be incorporated in the service by the Rev. John D. O'Neill. Those to be installed are Mrs. Elizabeth, Mrs. John D. O'Neill, Mrs. Fred Gary, and Mrs. Charles Price.

Mrs. Donald Price is the secretary of missionary education and Mrs. Mark L. Bristol, is secretary of spiritual life.

MFA To Meet At Coolbaugh

THE Mountain Firemen's Association will hold its first meeting of the fall season Monday night at the Barrett Township Fire House. It will start at 8 p.m.

President Stanley Pope of Coolbaugh Twp. Fire Co. urges all members to be present.

Plans for a joint drill and fire safety activities will be on the agenda.

Dear Abby

Partners, Gal!

Dear Abby: You may not believe this, but I have been married to a man for 34 years, and I still have never seen his paycheck. (He has an excellent white-collar job.) Nor have I seen any of his insurance policies, but I know he carries lots of insurance. I have no idea how much money he has in the bank, nor do I know if the mortgage on our house is paid. My monthly allowance is so small I am ashamed to tell you what it is. We have never had a vacation. He says we can't afford it. We are not getting any younger. I think I should have a complete understanding of our financial affairs. He says it is none of my business. It's his money. How can I change things?

WAR HORSE'S WIFE

Dear Wife: After 34 years of silence, it would be pretty difficult to teach an old war horse new tricks. Ask him if he wants to bring you up-to-date on the family finances, or would he rather you asked his banker, lawyer and insurance agent? You are his partner, you know.

Dear Abby: I know you are going to say that this is just puppy love, but, believe me, it is not. I may be only 14 years old, but I know this is the real thing. Peter is 16, and he feels the same way about it. Our parents laugh at us when we say we are in love, and want to get married when we are through school. We have gone together for four months, two weeks and

Homecoming Day To Show Crowning Of One Of Six

SIX girls from a group of 21 candidates, each sponsored by a campus organization, have been chosen finalists in the East Stroudsburg State College Homecoming Queen Contest. A school-wide election was held Thursday in which six candidates came out on top.

Five of the finalists will be members of the royal court; one will be proclaimed and crowned queen in a ceremony to take place before the 2 p.m. football game today with Mansfield State College.

The six girls, listed in alphabetical order, are: Margaret Austin, a 5'2" brunette from Factoryville; she is a senior secondary major. Nuala Downey, 5', black hair and green eyes from New Zealand; she is a secondary 'special' student.

Ann Louise Fabio, a 5'5" brunette from Kingston; she is a senior health education major. Virginia Moorehead, a 5'6" blonde from Hathorn; she is a junior elementary major.

Carolyn Rosser, 5'7", brown hair, blue eyed, from Fairless Hills, a sophomore elementary major.

Joan Sipos, a 5'7" brunette from Bethlehem, a sophomore elementary major.

Dr. LeRoy J. Koehler will crown the successful candidate and she will be rendered royal homage by the homecoming day crowd at the football game. Tonight she will reign over the all-college dance.

WHO WILL SHE BE?

Events Slated For Homecoming

CROWNING of the homecoming queen at East Stroudsburg State College will take place today at half-time of the East Stroudsburg State College and Mansfield College football game on College Hill.

Registration point for the annual homecoming will be in the reception room of Stroud Hall from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. today.

Other events scheduled are coffee and donuts in Stroud Hall from 9 to 11 a.m.

Starting at 9:30 a.m. there will be a women's field hockey game. The opposing team will be composed of alumni.

The 10-Year-Club will meet in the dining room at 1 p.m. and will end at 2 p.m. to allow the members to attend the football game.

At 4:40 p.m. the directors of the Alumni Association will meet in the board room of the administration building.

Following a buffet supper at 6 p.m. there will be a variety show in the swimming pool at 7 p.m. This show will be followed by an informal dance at 8:30 p.m.

Farm Buyings, Enlargement Authorities Are Broadened

LEGISLATION recently passed by Congress authorizes loans to enlarge small farms, Frank Orendo, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration said yesterday.

Previously, such loans could only be made on farms where the farm income alone was inadequate to support the family.

As a result farmers who have off-farm jobs and operate small family farms may now obtain funds to increase the size of their operations.

The new legislation also authorizes loans to buy and enlarge any family farm. Previously, these loans had been limited to farms whose value was no greater than that of the average family farm in the county. The total indebtedness on such farms cannot exceed $60,000 or the value of the security. The broadening of this credit regulation will help many young farmers, Orendo said. In the past many young farmers were unable to obtain a loan to buy their family farm simply because the farm was worth more than the average family farm.

Insured loans for the enlargement, improvement and purchase of farms may now be made up to the normal value of the farm. Previously these loans were limited to 90 per cent of the farm's normal value.

New legislation has also brought greater flexibility into the terms investors receive when they provide funds for insured farm real estate loans. This will enable the government to adjust the return, within limits, to money market conditions. And will increase the volume of funds available for this type of credit.

Variations in the terms to lenders will in no way affect the rate the farmer-borrower pays. This rate will remain at 5 per cent.

Real estate loans are made for the enlargement, improvement and purchase of farms no larger than family farms. This type of credit can also be used to refinance debts.

Credit supplements and in no way competes with the real estate credit available from private and cooperative sources.

Technical supervision in farm and money management accompanies each loan.

State Police Colonel Quits $13,500 Post

HARRISBURG (AP)—The deputy commissioner of the Pennsylvania state police quit Friday amid speculation of a flare-up in the agency's high command.

Lt. Col. Charles Hartman capped 33 years of service with the state police with a terse one-sentence letter of resignation, effective Oct. 19. It gave no explanation why he unexpectedly was leaving the $13,500 a year post.

Hartman refused to discuss his resignation. He declared angrily to an Associated Press staffer sent to his home:

"Allow me the courtesy of leaving me alone. I don't want to be bothered. I don't have anything to say now and I won't have anything to say later."

Reports circulated at the capital that Hartman was angered by a matter of police policy. The speculation was not clear whether the action centered on some feature of the current political campaign.

Hartman's position appeared unusual because of his long friendship with Commissioner Frank G. McCartney.

In a statement announcing the resignation, McCartney declared: "I have not been able to talk to Col. Hartman personally. His resignation comes as a very unpleasant surprise. I have known and respected Lt. Col. Hartman for many years, dating back to the 1930s when we worked together as detectives. He was doing an outstanding job as deputy commissioner and I am sorry to receive his resignation."

Resigned In Huff
The announcement of Hartman's resignation came after overnight reports that he had quit in a huff.

The 54-year-old Hartman joined the force in 1928. In 1938 he was promoted to command of police in the Punxsutawney area with the rank of captain. During World War II he was a Coast Guard lieutenant.

When McCartney was named commissioner by Gov. Lawrence in 1959, he brought Hartman to Harrisburg as commander of Troop A at state headquarters.

In February of 1960 McCartney fired then Deputy Commissioner A. F. Dahlstrom. The next day, Feb. 4, Hartman was made lieutenant colonel, replacing Dahlstrom. Hartman is a native of Philadelphia.

Interest In Mate's Work
Mrs. MacFarland has taken a great interest in her husband's work. In the past she was president of the women's auxiliary of the Odontological Society of Western Pennsylvania and served on the state board of the Pennsylvania State Dental Society.

Her favorite pastime, Mrs. Pennsylvania said, is singing. "I've been singing all my life," she offered, adding that she is a former member of the local Mendelssohn Choir.

"I also do a little oil painting, rug hooking, make jellies and am interested in scouting," Mrs. MacFarland said. "I play golf, too, but I'm only a 'social golfer.'"

Rounding out her hobbies are the MacFarlands' 18 apple trees on their two-acre land. "We have a lot of fun giving apples away," she commented.

If there was anything surprising about Mrs. MacFarland's victory, it is the fact that she doesn't bake cakes too often.

"We don't eat many sweets," she explained. "Since my husband is a dentist, he doesn't approve of it."

'Sky Shield' Will Ground All Civil Aircraft Today

ALL CIVIL aviation over the North American Continent, north of Mexico, will be grounded for a 12-hour period beginning at 1 p.m. (EDT) and ending at 1 a.m. (EDT) today.

Pocono Mountains Airport at Mt. Pocono also will observe the 12-hour shutdown.

Exercise requirements call for complete freedom of movement at all altitudes, in both descending and ascending patterns, by United States and Canadian military aircraft.

During the exercises extensive radar and communications and jamming efforts will be made by bombers simulating attacking forces against air defense facilities, FAA air traffic control radar and other electrical guidance equipment.

This large-scale exercise will include a simulated air attack on the North American Continent (action simulated by the Strategic Air Command) and air defense activities in response to the simulated attack. The exercise will encompass the entire Continent north of the Mexican border. Aircraft not participating in the exercise will not operate in the U.S. (except Hawaii) and Canada during the 12-hour period indicated.

According to FAA Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby, the success of the exercise depends upon clearing the airspace of all non-participants. FAA radar and air-ground communications can be expected to be jammed by the widespread use of electrical countermeasures and chaff.

Combined with the numerous and complex maneuvers that will be performed by NORAD interceptors, the air situation will make

Hit Diamond Rackets

ABIDJAN, Ivory Coast (AP)—The National Assembly has moved to crack down on what it called an army of clandestine diamond prospectors and smugglers in the Ivory Coast interior. It adopted a law providing six months to three years in jail and fines up to $6,000 for chicanery in the mining districts.

Diefenbaker Set For Finnish Trip

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker said Friday he has been invited by Finnish President Urho Kekkonen to visit Finland, and plans to go. He indicated no firm date has yet been set.

The president and Mrs. Kekkonen left Ottawa Friday after a three-day visit.

Diefenbaker already has one overseas trip on his schedule—a five-day state visit to Japan late this month.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Judy Wells is the final winner of the club dinner marathon for October, I think. In her capacity as county president of the Federated Clubs she has been making the rounds, although I don't think she's gained a round more than I have in the process.

It's not the fault of the food which has been terrific; it's the exercise we get trying to run from one to the other, I guess. But they are certainly worth it. Outside of the county federation, the Stroud Community Club was the last of the federated dinners, and their cooks really outdid themselves.

So did their year book committee. Not only do they have little drawings to illustrate each month's program, but each drawing is hand colored and trimmed with gold sequins. Wow!

There is a new trend in year books this year — for which I, for one, am profoundly grateful — and that is to list the telephone numbers as well as the addresses and husbands' names of all the members. The AAUW also lists colleges; the Junior Woman's Club has not yet come to the point of listing children, although I've suggested it; and the Stroud Community Club, without a ny suggestions, has starred the telephone numbers of those members who work. It's for the benefit of the committee chairmen who can gauge when to best reach them, but it makes an interesting commentary of modern life.

Of the 66 members listed, 32 are employed outside the home, and of those 32, 28 have husbands not counting the widows, and most of those have children.

They haven't reached the point of putting double asterisks after the names of those who do a terrific job in all four capacities: wage earner, wife, mother, and club executive but I can add my own stars there. And judging by the covered dishes they served at the supper all of them could get an extra star as chefs.

Well, the free feeds are about over, but from the projects the clubs have planned there'll be no lack of news until the banquets begin in May.

Meeting Sunday

Gateway Post, Society of the 28th Division and its Aux. will meet Sunday afternoon at 2 at the VFW Home. Members are asked to bring a covered dish for the supper.

Official Board Meeting

Portland — The official board of the Portland Methodist Church will meet Monday night at 8 at the home of Nicholas Ervey.

Former PTA Units Join To Promote New Barrett Elementary Center

BARRETT — More than 120 people attended the first meeting of the new Barrett Elementary PTA Monday night at the school.

The hospitalty chairman, Mrs. David Toms and Miss Marjorie Beseker, greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Wilson Huffman took the gavel as president for the 1961-62 season, following devotions led by Clayton Coffman.

Reporting for the executive committee was William Kintzel, vice president. The meetings for this committee will be every second Monday of the month, just prior to the general meeting.

Other officers seated at the head table were: Mrs. Joseph La Spina, recording secretary; Mrs. Russell Nauman, treasurer; Mrs. Lowell Coffman, corresponding secretary.

Membership Canvass

Canvassers have begun to go house to house to invite parents of grade school children to join the PTA. Mrs. Donald Dyson, in charge of the Paradise area, presented charts to the group which will be hung in each school room to show the membership enrollment of the parents of those children. Mrs. Ernest Lahar will be responsible for parents from the Barrett area while Mrs. Charles DePue will contact residents of the Mount Pocono area.

A grand parade and square dance will be featured at the October 27 Halloween party at the school, the ways and means committee chairman, Mrs. John O'Neill announced.

The auditors report was given by the new chairman, A. Wilkinson.

The bylaws of the combined PTA groups from Paradise and Barrett were presented and will be mimeographed by Miss Ruth Henry, committee chairman and fifth grade teacher.

Mrs. Hazel Kintzel will handle

Honeymoon In Bermuda Follows Rice-Ace Wedding

Catherine Fleming Ace, of 903 Main St., Stroudsburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Fleming, of 11 Collins St., Stroudsburg, was married on Oct. 7 at 2 p. m. to Carl E. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Rice, of 139 Market St., Bangor.

They were married in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church in Bangor by Rev. John C. Brumbach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of blue satin and chiffon with blue accessories. She carried a bride's prayer book with a white orchid and baby pompon streamers.

She was attended by her daughters, Mrs. James Snyder and Miss Rhonda Ace. Mrs. Snyder, of 514 Bryant St., Stroudsburg, was matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of beige brocade with beige accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums and pompons.

Miss Rhonda Ace wore a dress of tiny-tucked white voile over yellow satin with bronze accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums and pompons.

Two altar vases were filled with chrysanthemums and mums and there were two large fan-shaped baskets of chrysanthemums and mums in front of the altar. John (Ricky) Jones of Bangor sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," "At Dawn," and, while they knelt at the altar, he sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Helen Becker, of Bangor, was organist, and accompanied Mr. Jones.

Harold O. Rice, of 1394 Market St., Bangor, was his brother's best man. Ushers were volunteer staff for the school cafeteria. Lloyd Peak recommended mothers' help and the group approved the move to have one or two mothers help to serve the food and care for the cafeteria.

To correlate efforts, three observers were elected to attend separate school board meetings to keep the body apprised of the movements in school government. William Kintzel will attend Barrett board meetings; Mrs. James Sebnig, Paradise board meetings and Richard Price will take notes at the Pocono Mountain Jointure board meetings.

Delegates to the Monroe County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations were named.

Mrs. Russell Nauman, Miss Edna Effe, Mrs. Donald Dyson and Miss Ruth Henry will attend the council meetings of which there are five during the school year.

All-Day Open House

During the observance of National Education Week, members of the group have arranged a departure from the usual "Open House" at night. Instead, parents are invited to attend day classes as their children are being taught. Wednesday, November 8 from 1-3 p. m. and Thursday morning, 9-11:30 a. m. November 9th are the days. A committee of mothers headed by Mrs. Edmund Magaon will escort parents to their child's classes. Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Joyce Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Lahar and Mrs. Lowell Coffman will be four of the escorts. Also volunteering services are Mrs. Janet Brush, Mrs. Herbert Larsen, Mrs. Renselwitz and Mrs. Richard Lundsen.

Members of Mrs. Rose's second grade class will receive a gift of money to buy something for their room. Their parents were out in full force, taking the high score for attendance and receiving the association's

Wife To Join Bruce Land In New Home Here

Bruce Land, son of the late Mrs. Edith E. Land of Stroudsburg, has returned from California and his wife will join him here shortly.

She is the former Judy E. Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lambert of Louisville, Kentucky and is a graduate of State Teachers College in Louisville.

They were married on June 13 in St. Mark's Catholic Church, Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Land, a native of this area, is a graduate of Stroudsburg High School.

They will make their home at 29 Second St., Stroudsburg.

Three PTA's Join For Civil Defense

New Ventures Planned By Stroud Community Club At Its Columbus Day Dinner

A resume of past adventures and ground-breaking for new explorations marked the Columbus Day dinner meeting which opened the club year for the Stroud Community Woman's Club at the YMCA.

Past presidents were honored at the meeting when they were presented with General Federation charms by the club, and bracelets by the new president, Mrs. Lester Katz who reviewed the highlights of each administration.

Past presidents are: Mrs. Hazel West, 1954-55; Mrs. T. D. Hoffman, 1955-57; Mrs. William Howard, 1957-58; Mrs. William Brown, 1958-59; and Mrs. Harold Cleaver, 1959-61.

A new departure this year was the club action in endorsing an educational program to learn more about community fluoridation of water. Mrs. Florina Felker, public affairs chairman, suggested the study in which the club will invite members of the Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club to join them.

Even before the formal opening, the club had completed one successful project: The fashion show held at Shawnee Inn. They realized $200 from the affair. The fashion show was sponsored by the project team, captained by Mrs. Edward Odzer.

The second project team effort will be a rummage sale to be held at the Grand Theater building, East Stroudsburg, on Nov. 3 and 4 with Mrs. W. L. Clugston as chairman.

The entire club will join in sponsoring a "Hawaiian Holiday" dance to be held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel on Nov. 18. Mrs. Walter Olenick, chairman, explained the plans for the party. Tickets were distributed to the members.

A fourth major Fall project for the club is playing hosts to the Monroe County Federation of Woman's Clubs at the meet-

Garden Club District Board Here

Mrs. Russell E. Hamblin of Stroudsburg, Director of District 2, Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania, presided at an all-day board meeting held at Greenview Guest Farm in Monroe County on Wednesday, Oct. 11. Ten clubs from Lehigh, Northampton, Schuylkill and Monroe Counties comprise the district and had representation at the meeting.

Among the various reports — it was noted by Mrs. A. Starr Phelps, the Horticulture Chairman, that District 2 has contributed 18 plants of "Tusculaga farfara" — commonly known as "Colts-foot" — to Bowman's Hill Wild Flower Preserve at Washington's Crossing, Pa.

Monday, Oct. 16 is an important date for District 2, when Mary Takahashi, of Chicago, Illinois will present a program on Japanese Arrangements at a joint meeting of the Allentown, Bethlehem, Catasauqua and Emmaus Garden Clubs in the Lehigh Valley Co-operative Dairy Auditorium in Allentown at 1:30 p. m. Members of the other six clubs have been invited to attend.

Roadside Council will hold the annual meeting at the Penn Harris Hotel in Harrisburg, Pa. on November 1st.

The annual Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania Christmas Party will be held at Strawbridge & Clothier Store Auditorium in Philadelphia, Pa. on Nov. 13 at 10:30 a. m.

Tamaqua Garden Club will be the hostess club for the annual District 2 meeting on April 6th with the place to be announced later.

Mrs. Elwood Grant, also a member of the Monroe County Garden Club reported on conservation of which she is chairman.

Other members of the local club present were Mrs. Edgar Van Wyk, president; Mrs. Edward C. Knob, secretary and program chairman. Mrs. Knob was reservation chairman for the meeting.

Mrs. Bert Transue, district recording secretary, and past president of the Portland Club gave the invocation.

Mrs. Joseph Kenworthy of Allentown, state treasurer and president of the Allentown Club was an honored guest.

Melnikoff Speaker At Stroud PTA

Stroud Union Parent-Teachers Assn. will have Walter Melnikoff, president of the Monroe County Council of PTA as their speaker at the meeting on Monday night at 8 in the school cafeteria. He will speak on the program of the County Council and the potential power of the PTA meetings in cooperation.

The business meeting will follow Melnikoff's talk. Mrs. Edwin Buck representing the mothers of the 11th grade students, will be chairman of the hostess committee.

The Wyckoff Shopper The Wyckoff Shopper

One of my most practical possessions is a little black box covered with fake patent leather. It has a plastic handle and a plastic flap beneath the lid, and it was designed as a sewing box. Amy Eilenberger sells them in our notions department for 2.98, and they come also in dull red, red patent, and turquoise.

Mine is not used for sewing, but to hold all the paraphernalia a woman keeps at the office. It has, among other things, a wash cloth, a deodorant, toothpaste and brush, a small comb and hair brush, some powder, rouge, and lipstick, an extra pair of white gloves, a pair of stockings, and a box of aspirin. The gloves are for those days when I might wish to make a mad dash to interview someone for the radio . . . or for those other days when I go direct from work to a Business and Professional Women's Club meeting. The stockings are to replace those that have an aggravating way of developing runs just about the time I'm due in the Tea Room or some such place to meet someone who reads my column, listens to the radio, or has something to discuss with me.

I mention this little box, because, like Pandora's, it is magic. There is scarcely anything from a ball point pen to hair oil that it can't produce in a twinkling. And not just at the office either! The other evening, when I was due in Brodheadsville to present a millinery fashion show, I decided to stay overnight with my friend, Antoinette Vianello. This would eliminate the need for Betty Fisher to drive me home, since Betty's husband would be coming in the next morning to Wyckoff's and could "chauffeur" me back.

Better than pack a train case, I decided to carry my sewing box—and it worked perfectly. It's plenty large enough to hold a nightgown, I discovered, providing I first eliminated some of the papers I had packed. So, take the idea for what it's worth—at 2.98 these boxes are less expensive than an overnight case; they are so light of weight that even when fully packed you hardly know you're carrying one; they would pass at a glance for a boxy purse, and when they're not traveling they can be used for the intended purpose. If you'd find one useful, see them today in our notions department.

Incidentally, such a box would be ideal for packing items one needs when ill in the hospital—the things like makeup, notepaper, stamps, etc., one begins to use when recovering. I have never yet gone to a hospital without such a box, and it has always delighted the nurses. Busy as they are, they appreciate that fact that I rarely bring with a request to be handed anything . . . everything I'll need for the day, to keep me busy and content, is in my box, which is given me each morning and remains at my side all day.

I'm sure you'd find the idea as useful as I have . . . and it's yours to try!

My gracious, but Paper Back Books are becoming almost as expensive as the hard cover variety, and thus losing some of their popular appeal. I notice we have a few new ones, including one that is only 50¢—"Ernest Hemingway: the Life and Death of a Man." This sounds interesting. But if you would like a comprehensive study of "Glass Through the Ages," you'll have to pay 1.95 . . . Wonder if all the elementary school teachers know what charming big cutouts, in color, we have here at Wyckoff's—particularly the turkeys, etc., pertaining to Thanksgiving? The variety is large; the prices small—5, 10 and 15¢.

N'fld Rotary To Discuss Army Band, Community Fair

NEWFOUNDLAND — The Army Band and the Community Fair will be two topics of interest which are scheduled to be aired during the meetings of the Rotary Club this month.

Terrence Bartholomew, a former resident of East Stroudsburg and a member of the faculty of Southern Wayne Joint School, will speak on Monday, October 16, on his experiences during six years service with the U. S. Army, much of which time was spent in touring with the U. S. Army Band.

On October 23, the Rotarians will hear Carroll Fetherman, president of the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Community Fair Association, speak on the fair.

October 30 is set for an open meeting. Dr. Frank Urdel will be program chairman for November, following Rev. Larry T. Lindemann, who served during September and October.

Air Force Takes Sand To Flood

TOKYO (AP)—Two U. S. Air Force transports left Friday for Phnom Penh with 100,000 sand bags in an emergency airlift of urgently needed equipment for flood-stricken areas of Cambodia, the Air Force announced.

Phnom Penh was the recipient of an earlier U. S. emergency airlift operation Oct. 3 when five water purification units, four huge cranes and a tractor were flown in from Japan.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left or right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Interpreting The Headlines

Thoughts After Scanning News

By J. M. ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst

Some thoughts after scanning a week's news:

In her campaign against the hemisphere-wide activities of the Castroites, Peru has injected what may become an extremely important thought regarding the attitude of Latin-American countries toward outside intervention in each other's affairs.

Her suggestion is that the charter of the Organization of American States, barring intervention, is designed to protect the self-determination of peoples, not to protect individual regimes which actually deny that.

Roger Arneberg, Los Angeles city attorney, used a phrase the other day to describe books which use the famous four-letter words in ways which are neither pornographic, which some philosophers will defend; nor socially revealing, which other philosophers will defend. He called it "latrine literature." I use in male conversation a lot of the words that high school boys write on walls, but they embarrass me when I'm in mixed company. And I quickly get rid of books I don't want my grandchildren to read.

Dr. T. F. Tsiang, one of the men who helped organize the United Nations, said the other night his Chinese Nationalist government would rather not be represented in the organization at all than to accept coexistence within it with Red China. Other Nationalist leaders, like some French leaders and others, are expressing growing doubt about U.N. values anyway.

The growing expression of fear in the United States regarding the Soviet Union is deliberately trying to produce through new bomb tests. The creation of fear is the first weapon of the black-mailer.

Chipmunk Speaks Softly

LAANNA—A chipmunk who speaks softly and wears an abbreviated tail has made friends with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, at Holley Ross Pottery.

For the second year, the friendly little gal has appeared when Spring came to the Pocomox; raised a family of two tiny chipmunks and entertained the Smiths at the pottery shop.

Every day, the small animal waits for Mrs. Smith to hand out peanuts. These she packs away in her mouth, one on each side and one protruding from the front, and whisks away to her nest in a woodpile near the doorway of the shop. If no peanuts are handed out, she appears in the doorway, sitting on the doorstep until she is fed. It was this habit that led to her shortened tail, for one day while she was waiting to be discovered, the door blew shut and snapped off her tail.

Occasionally, she grows impatient and runs right into the shop, searching for peanuts. Once she was shut inside overnight, and had a busy time among the pottery animals on a shelf, knocking over most of them before morning.

The little chipmunk has no fear of the people who visit the pottery shop. She has discovered during her two-year acquaintance with the Smiths that human beings make pretty good friends!

Bangor Runs Over Stroud Union High, 29-7

By ARMON WILLIAMS
Daily Record
Sports Writer

BANGOR High's running game more than offset Stroud Union High's passing last night, as the Mounties terminated a three-game losing streak at the expense of the Mountaineers, 29-7, at Memorial Park Stadium last night.

The host eleven never trailed in this one, picking up an early safety after a goal-line bobbie stymied a touchdown drive and then protected a commanding lead that came under a dangerous aerial attack engineered by Warren Loney.

But the visitors gave their all in a Stroud Union controlled third period in an effort to tip the balance. Twice goaldawr surges, fueled by Loney's pitching, were stopped ten yards short. Bangor rebounded in the fourth for a final score that made Stroudsburg's cause hopeless.

Two Casualties

These were not the only disappointments for the invaders, however, since two casualties were suffered. Bill Morse, bulky tackle, failed to make the kickoff when he fractured an elbow joint in pre-game warmups. Ed Queenan, end, experienced a slight concussion in a fourth period pileup. Both were treated at Monroe General Hospital and released.

Bangor began rolling shortly after the opening toe-off when Ed Nevill punted to mid-field. Leo Reimer, Ron Bet and Sherdy Heard ripped up to the four-yard line in seven thrusts only to fumble on the next on the one. When Loney, after Stroud Union's recovery, tried to run it out, he was snowed under in the end zone and the Slayers were two points to the good.

The following kickoff saw Reimer's recovery of a punt on the Maroon's 46 retaining the advantage. Reimer, off wing, faced to the 18. A fumble followed and Fred Frantz of Stroud Union recovered. Bangor regained possession immediately by Tony DeCesare's recovery on the 11. Dan Caracio went over on the first play but a 15-yard penalty nullified Heard's placement and he was unable to get enough distance on the second try.

Stay In Saddle

Bangor continued in the saddle. Terry Brodick's recovery of a punt on the Maroon's 46 retaining the advantage. Reimer, off wing, faced to the 18. A fumble followed and Fred Frantz of Stroud Union recovered. Bangor regained possession immediately by Tony DeCesare's recovery on the 11. Dan Caracio went over on the first play but a 15-yard penalty nullified Heard's placement and he was unable to get enough distance on the second try.

Stroud Union again bogged down on the kickoff early in the second, then put on steam on Reimer's subsequent punt over to the 10. Running by Tom Schatzman, Frantz and Loney gathered initial momentum before Loney began hitting Jack Imbit. This combination elicited for 35 of the 60 yards on three forwards, the last reaching the one for an easy crossover by Schatzman. Nevill booted the conversion, making the score 15-7.

Although only two minutes were left in the half, it was time enough for Bangor to get back seven points. Reimer raced the kickoff back 34 yards. Dan Caracio got loose for 11 and Bet broke through for 31 yards to Stroudsburg's eight. Reimer turned end for the tally and Heard again converted via placement.

Best Show

Stroudsburg's greatest show of strength was in the third and it got under way in the first few moments when Loney intercepted

Terry Wildrick's pass and returned it to Bangor's 30. Schatzman and Don Baylor hit to the 16 before the attack began to falter, finally dying on the 11.

Another penetration was launched from Stroudsburg's 37 where Reimer's punt went out of bounds. In nine plays, featuring Loney's 14-yard flip to Imbit, the Mountaineers barged to the 5, then ran afoul a 5-yard penalty. When the last round opened, they were unable to get back in the swing and wound up surrendering on downs on the five.

This was the birth of Bangor's longest parade, with Reimer and Caracio the workhorses. They bounced over to Stroudsburg's 47 in seven carries despite a 15-yard interruption by penalty en route. From that point, Bet whipped through tackle for 47 yards and a score. Heard extended his place-kicking effectiveness.

After the kickoff, Stroud Union replied with its major gain, a 53-yard forward, Loney to Frantz, that reached Bangor's 20. But the Mounties got no further. Bangor took over with four minutes to go and moved over to Stroudsburg's 32. There the Mountaineers fell on a fumble and the next maneuver, a grounded pass, closed the proceedings.

Hutch Named Top Manager By Writers

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Fred Hutchinson was a runaway selection as the National League's Manager of the Year for 1961—but he might not know about it yet.

Hutchinson was on a leisurely three or four-day drive from Cincinnati to his home in Brandenton, Fla. when the results of The Associated Press poll were announced Friday. He could not be contacted immediately.

The 42-year-old pilot received all but one of the 176 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The only dissenting ballot named Alvin Dark of the third place San Francisco Giants.

Converts Reds

Hutchinson, with important contributions from such new acquisitions as pitcher Joey Jay and third baseman Gene Freese and steady hitting from Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson, converted the Reds from a second division club to National League champions.

The 1960 Reds had a 67-87 record and finished sixth. Generally, they weren't given more than long shot chance in the preseason predictions, but came through with their first pennant in 21 years.

Hutchinson previously managed Detroit and St. Louis. His Tigers didn't finish higher than fifth, and in three years at St. Louis the Cardinals finished fourth, second and fifth.

West End-A's Square Off In PML Finals

WEST End and Anomalink meet for the Pocono Mountain Baseball League championship at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Gilbert.

The teams are tied at one game each in the best of three final play-offs.

West End, which has won four of the five meetings between the teams this year, will pitch Brian Hill, while Anomalink manager Dick Miller has not decided on a starting pitcher. Hill has lost only one game this year and only one during the regular season. Anomalink beat Hill 10-1 in the first game of the finals but lost last week, 9-3.

Miller plans to put as many lefthanded hitters as possible against Hill, a righthander. Harold Staples, who missed last week's games will be back this week. Staples will catch.

West End manager Webb Shafer plans to use the same line-up that he used last week.

NCAA Lists Steps For Crime Curb

KANSAS CITY (AP) — College athletic officials came up with a program to combat the menace of gambling to intercollegiate athletics.

The proposals, advanced as a result of the many "point spread" scandals in various sections of the country during the last basketball season, were released through the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

They were directed to the NCAA's 575 member institutions; the National Association of Collegiate Commissioners; the American Football Coaches Association and the National Association of Basketball Coaches. Officers of the four organizations endorsed the proposals.

The program contains 16 proposals, five of which are directed at organized gambling. It urged colleges to expel any student for failure to report a bribe or for serving as an agent for the gambling industry, including the distribution of handicap cards.

Patterson In Seniors' Golf

Frank L. Patterson, of Stroudsburg, is entered in the 10th annual North and South Invitation Seniors' golf championship at Pinehurst, N. C., which opens Oct. 16.

John Ruchman, president of the Pocono Mountain Babe Ruth League, is attending the annual state Babe Ruth meeting in Harrisburg, which opens tomorrow.

The woodcock hunting season opens today at sunrise. A regular Pennsylvania hunting license (no migratory bird stamp) is required of woodcock hunters.

The season runs through Nov. 22 with a daily limit of four and the maximum possession limit is eight after the first day. Shooting hours are sunrise to sunset week days only.

Eddie Grandis, of Mountainhome, one of the founders of Skydiving in Pennsylvania, has given up the aerial sport.

Grandis Quits Skydiving Sport

Grandis has sold his equipment and lack of interest locally is one of the reasons he quit.

Grandis left for North Carolina last night to visit members of the U. S. Army Skydiving team, injured in an airplane crash last month.

Skydiving is a form of parachute jumping, which is preceded by a period of free fall.

Curt Hickman, manager of Bushkill in the Pocono Mountain Baseball League, has been selected as the outstanding manager in the loop.

It was quite an honor for Hickman, whose team finished last and won only one game.

John Wernett, of Saylorsburg, was voted the most deserving official of the league. The league holds its annual banquet next Saturday night at High Point Inn.

Daily Pulls Bowling Switch

Arch Daily has pulled a switch in the bowling business. It is not uncommon for a restaurant owner to open a bowling alley but the reverse is not so common.

Daily who owns Barrett Bowling Center, recently purchased Rhineland Inn on Rte. 611, Swiftwater.

And Fred Fulmer, of Mountainhome, is taking quite a ribbing from Mike Megargle lately.

It seems Fulmer, who reigned as King of the Hill on Bowling Bonanza for several weeks, rolled a 97 game recently and Megargle won't let him forget about it.

Megargle, a tavern owner and professional golfer, has had his golf curtailed this year by burstis.

Fernandez Goes Against Shorts

NEW YORK (AP)—Jorge Fernandez, an aggressive, free-swinging welterweight contender from the Argentine, is a 2-1 favorite to whip Cecil Shorts of Cleveland Saturday night and score his sixth straight victory.

They will meet in a televised (ABC-TV, 9 p.m., EST) 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Shorts subs for Italy's Bruno Visintin who couldn't make the trip to the United States because of divorce litigation problems.

Shorts, 22, has a record of 19-7-1, including nine kayos.

Fernandez, 5, has a 67-5-1 record, including 50 knockouts.

But Football Is Feature Mystery Opening Is Added For ESC Homecoming Tilt

EAST Stroudsburg State College's homecoming football game with Mansfield at Normal Hill today will have an added attraction.

In addition to the crowning of the homecoming queen and a halftime show by the 75-piece Mansfield band, the football to be used in the game will be thrown out in an unusual manner.

The manner in which the ball will be tossed is being kept a secret but it is believed that it will be the first time in the history of football that the stunt has been used.

East Stroudsburg officials, although disappointed in the small advance sale for the game, feel that a crowd of more than 4,000 will be on hand.

"You can never be sure how many alumni will turn up," says athletic director John Eller, "but I have heard that more graduates are planning to return this year than in the past."

Largest Crowds

Last year some 4,000 people watched the Warriors' homecoming game against Bloomsburg, believed to be the largest crowd ever to watch a game at Normal Hill. The largest crowd ever to watch an East Stroudsburg game was the 5,500 throng that saw this year's West Chester game at Memorial Stadium.

The crowning ceremonies, band and mystery opening are not the reason most of the crowd will be at the game.

The game is a low man out affair. The losing team will be all but out of the race for the Eastern Division title of the Pennsylvania State College title, although Mansfield stands a better chance in the race if it loses than East Stroudsburg.

Mansfield is unbeaten in three starts and has won both of its conference starts. The Mountaineers hold a 60-0 decision over Cheyney, a 24-21 win over Shippensburg and a 21-0 victory over non-conference Brockport.

East Stroudsburg has beaten Millersville 37-7, Kutztown 45-7 and Shippensburg 47-7 but has lost to West Chester 28-7.

Top Passing Club

Mansfield ranks in the top three in small colleges in passing and Mountie end Ray Ronchi is second in the nation in pass receiving. In their first two games of the season the Mounties gained 428 yards in passing and tacked on 334 more on the ground.

Reusch, a junior from Peckville tossed for three touchdowns in the first two games and last week hit Ronchi, also of Peckville for a 50-yard TD against Brockport.

East Stroudsburg also has a creditable passing game but it does not have the national ranking achieved by Mansfield.

Quarterback Bill Lewis has passed for at least one touchdown in every game except West Chester. Lewis has also scored four touchdowns.

East Stroudsburg's attack features the leading collegiate scorer in the state, Toby Barkman, who has run for seven TDs this year. Barkman also leads the conference in scoring and is fourth in the nation.

Star Awards

Warrior coach Jack Gregory gave out the weekly star awards Thursday for defensive play against Shippensburg.

Joe Heverin earned a star for leading the club in tackles, while Moe Barber collected his second star of the year. Barber intercepted a pass against Ship. Freshman Nick Forsette received a star for scoring a touchdown with a fumble.

"Normally a player has to recover two fumbles to get a star," said Gregory, "but because Forsette ran 20-yards with ball, I think he deserved to be recognized."

Gregory also named Barber and guard Art Schisler to serve as game co-captains along with the regular captains Billy Race and Ed (Roadblock) Becker.

AIMING TO BREAK UP ARMY LINE — Two of Penn State's line work out at University Park, Pa., in preparation for State's game against Army in State Stadium Oct. 14. Joe Blasenstien, a junior from Philadelphia, left, and Harrison Rosdahl, a sophomore from Ridgefield Park, N. J.—both guards—have played key roles in State's wins over Navy and Boston University. Cavaliers Face Last Place Club

EAST STROUDSBURG High School and its patched-up line swung back into Lehigh-Northampton League competition today at Parkland.

The Cavaliers, who have a 1-1 mark in league play and a 3-1 overall, will be without co-captain guard Earl Metzgar and tackle Bud Stann.

Metzgar is out for the season with a concussion suffered in the Lehighton game and Stann is still bothered by a pulled back muscle. There is a chance Stann might be able to play with Wil-

Still In Race

East Stroudsburg is still in the race for the league title, despite the 25-6 loss to Pen Argyl in the second game. However, if the Cavaliers are to take the crown, they will have to go through the rest of the season without a loss.

Parkland, on the strength of its performance this year, is not the team to upset East Stroudsburg but last season under almost the same circumstances scared the Cavaliers before losing 19-6.

In that game, the Trojans marched 60 yards for a score the first time they had the ball and they held the ball most of the game. East Stroudsburg was able to run only 12 plays in the second half but was able to stop the Trojans consistently inside the Cavalier 20. The Cavaliers' defense isn't that good this year, so they will have to beat the Trojans on offense.

Pius X of Roseto will try for its second victory of the season today as they invade New Jersey territory for a game with Belvidere.

The tilt, scheduled for 2 p.m. at the County Seaters' field, is one of the few games in which the Royals travel out of state. Last year Pius X handed the Jerseys a 14-7 defeat.

The Royal coaching staff was disappointed in last week's clash with Coplay, which ended in a 7-7 tie. The biggest factor in the Pius X offense was the lack of blocking.

In an attempt to strengthen the blocking, Tony Zanette, who also runs out of a halfback position has been returned to the right guard spot.

Pair Return

Coach Vince Shemanski has been able to do this without hurting his backfield because of the return of halfbacks Nick DeRosa and Tony Ricevuto.

Shemanski also spent considerable time planning a defensive to stop the running of Belvidere's Larry Bechan.

Pius hopes have been brightened by this week's scrimmage. The coaching staff called it the best scrimmage performance this season.

A doubtful starter for the Royals is tackle Bob DeGrosso, who was injured in the Coplay game.

Yank Second-String Leads 1-0 In Davis Cup Tennis

ROME (AP) — A second-string American tennis team shocked heavily favored Italy by taking a strong lead in the opening singles matches of the Davis Cup interzone final Friday.

The underdog Yankis won the first match and were ahead in the second that was suspended by darkness.

Jon Douglas, of Santa Monica, Calif., rallied from the brink of defeat and conquered Italian champion Fausto Gardini, 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 10-8, 6-0, in a marathon, 3 hours, 15 minutes match. The 25-year-old Californian trailed 25 in the third set and was one game from defeat when he staged his stirring comeback.

Then Whitney Reed, of Alameda, Calif., encouraged by Douglas' fantastic feat, provided the second surprise for the Italian team and the 6,000 spectators in the plush Rome Tennis Club. He won the first two sets from Nicola Pietrangeli, generally regarded as Europe's top amateur, 6-2, 8-6, and trailed 3-4 in the third set when it was halted by darkness.

Won Last Year

The Americans weren't expected to have much of a chance against the veteran Italians who beat the United States' best in the interzone final last year. Bernard Bartzen and Chuck McKinley, the two leading American amateurs, couldn't make the trip to Rome. Douglas, ranked sixth, and Reed, ranked eighth, were virtual last minute choices to face the talented Italian.

Italian tennis experts and the Italian players themselves expected to breeze past the Americans and earn the right to play the cup-holding Australians again in Australia in December.

U.S. team members beamed. Non-playing Captain David Freed said Douglas' victory "was a matter of eight years of age and his tremendous fighting spirit."

Freed also was impressed by Reed's performance. The captain said Reed "played marvelous tennis" on the red clay courts.

The Italians were glum. Gardini said he had a cramp in his right leg. Pietrangeli wouldn't talk.

Reed and Pietrangeli will resume their match Saturday. The crucial doubles are scheduled to follow.

Del. Valley Beaten 3-1

SURSEX, N. J.—Sussex High School handed an undermanned Delaware Valley High School soccer team a 3-1 defeat Friday.

Delaware, playing with only five regulars, because its seniors were on a class trip, lost a 1-0 lead in the second period and then saw the winners score goals in the last three frames for the victory. Bill Carroll scored the only Delaware goal.

Delaware (2-5) ends its season Tuesday at home against Lake Ariel.

Johnson Wins Over Aussie

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Don Johnson, 126½, of Los Angeles, stopped David Floyd, 127½, of Australia, in the eighth round of a 12-round bout Friday night.

Johnson wore down the young Aussie with his relentless attack. It was a good comeback for the American.

Torch Lighted For Sports Meet

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A torch was lighted Thursday night at Tainan in south Formosa for the Provincial Athletic Meet opening at the southwest seaport of Kaohsiung Oct. 25.

The torch is being carried by relay runners on an 863-mile round-the-island journey which has been turned to take 13 days, game

News Slant Of California

ABC NEWS Commentator Edward P. Morgan will spend the latter part of October on the West Coast interviewing key figures in the California political battles, including former Gov. Goodwin Knight, Gov. Edmund "Pat" Brown and Robert Finch, who is running Richard Nixon's campaign for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

While on the West Coast, he will participate in the UCLA student leadership assembly, to be held in the San Bernardino Mountains the week-end of Oct. 20. The assembly is designed to help integrate foreign students into university life, and to increase understanding of the causes of discrimination of minority groups. On Oct. 28 he will be a speaker at the Homecoming program of his Alma Mater, Whittier College, Walla Walla, Wash.

Wilson Notes 11th Anniversary

WHEN Bob Wilson presents his regular "Saturday Night News" this coming Saturday (October 14, 11:00 to 11:10 p.m.) on Channel 4, it will mark his 11th anniversary with the news program.

Wilson can't say now what the news might bring this coming Saturday night but he can point out the similarity between events today and the news 11 years ago.

The hard news on October 14, 1950, was that additional troops had been assigned to the United States garrison in Berlin in the face of Soviet threats. Andre Vishinsky, speaking in the U.N., demanded that the U.S. give up its "tough policy" against Russia, while John Foster Dulles was telling the Russians they must prove their peace aims, stating that they must show good faith by deeds, not words.

Youth Forum's Second Part

THE SECOND in the two-part "Youth Forum" series on "What Is Youth Seeking?" with FCC Chairman Newton N. Minow as guest panelist will be seen on WNBC-TV Sunday, October 15, 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. on Channel 4.

Joining moderator Dorothy Gordon in a spirited discussion of television are five students from Junior and Senior high schools in Washington, D.C.

The first segment presented last week on WNBC-TV featured grade school students giving their views on the subject of television.

West Virginia After 2nd Straight At Pitt

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Revenge-minded but underdog West Virginia will try and make it two victories in a row Saturday in its 54th football meeting with Pitt.

The favored Panthers will try to frustrate West Virginia's desires and halt their own two-game losing streak. The Mountaineers haven't won two straight since they defeated Richmond and George Washington in the early part of the 1959 season.

Shortly after that, they started on the 18-game losing skid that they finally halted last week with a 28-0 triumph over Virginia Tech.

The Mountaineers also would like to gain revenge for the 42-0 shellacking handed them by Pitt last year.

Both teams staged light workouts at Pitt Stadium Friday before retiring to their respective quarters for the night.

The Parents' Day game was expected to attract about 30,000 fans, not especially large for a Pitt-West Virginia battle. Only about 3,000 fans were expected to come here from West Virginia. In the past, as many as 15,000 have made the trip north.

Halfback Bob Clemens, who scored two touchdowns in last year's romp, will not play. He also missed last week's game with Washington. Other Pitt absentees will be end Woody Haser and guards Rege Coustillac and Ralph Conrad.

West Virginia probably will be without co-captain and end Bob Timmerman.

The Panthers have a big lead in the series, which started in 1895. They have won 39, lost 13 and tied one. Of the last 29 meetings, West Virginia has won only five times, including a 23-15 upset in 1959, the last victory before their long losing streak.

Americans Grab Huge Lead In Ryder Cup Golf Matches

LYTHAM-ST. ANNES, England (AP)—The United States stormed to a 6-2 lead over Britain at the end of the fourties in the Ryder Cup golf competition Friday and became 41 favorites to retain the golden trophy after Saturday's 16 singles.

Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper teamed brilliantly to win both their foursomes, including a 2 and 1 triumph over the highly rated British pair of Dai Rees and Ken Belfield while Art Wall and Jay Hebert shared the golfing glory by doing the same.

A crowd of about 17,000 excited fans streamed and surged over the 6,635-yard Royal Lytham and St. Annes links. Par is 35-36-71 but it varies with the weather.

Early Lead

The Americans took a 3-1 lead at the end of the morning matches, which were played in warm sunshine with only a gentle breeze whispering over the course.

Two 12-foot putts before a huge, silent crowd at the 18th green in the evening sunlight helped the Americans to their big lead. Hebert sank one for a 1-up victory and Dow Finsterwald, calmly rolled in another from the same distance in the last shot of the day.

Jerry Barber, U.S. captain, dropped himself from the morning matches then rested Doug Ford and Gene Littler, reigning U.S. Open champion, in the afternoon. Instead, Barber picked himself, partnered by Finsterwald, to replace Ford and Littler in the afternoon.

Barber and Finsterwald, playing in the very last match against 43-year-old Tom Halliburton and Neil Coles were 4 up after 11 holes and seemed to be coasting. Then the British hit back, won three of the next six holes and took Barber and his partner to the 18th green.

Finsterwald sent a 12-foot putt into the cup for a 1-up victory.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1961

March 21 to April 20 (Aries):—Nondescript, day. Good news, new ideas, induce intelligent discussions, in free time visit places of interest. Be prepared for a series of setbacks and delays. Results by calm, concise, coordinated effort.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus):—Be wary of enticement, "plausible" offers that have no firm foundation. Be prepared for a series of setbacks and delays. Results by calm, concise, coordinated effort.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini):—Similar to Aries. Join in groups, family in morning. Day for interest and benefit of all. Sharing joys and alleviating sorrows and worry from troubled minds is a charitable venture.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer):—Educating self and young ones who may come under your guidance. All worthy, cheerful, stressed. Especially favored: Professional men, salespeople, clerical, telephone, aviation.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo):—Propitious vibrations to you. Take essential before making a second period of rest, relaxation, recuperation from hard work past. Avoid anxiety, moody people.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo):—Understand your present. Ease up a bit. Look around and note how others are accomplishing duties. Enjoying some free time. Dispel any thoughts of pessimism, overcautiousness.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra):—Prime self for a real productive day. Whether indulging in a hobby, promoting an idea, devising a routine. Enlarge your scope of friends (quality only).

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio):—A hard day. Take neither too strenuous nor too lackadaisical course. Accomplish regular duties, efforts. Then turn to enjoy balance of free period in wholesome, neighborly fashion.

November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius):—Good day to review past efforts. Eliminate the non-productive movements. Broaden the more efficient ones. Keep eyes, ears, mind, pick up any loss, yet potent, clues.

December 24 to January 20 (Capricorn):—Fine rays predominate. Assess all formulas for success and adopt that formula producing stable results. Do not be afraid to try something new provided it shows worth.

PENNSYLVANIA SLIPWARE PLATE—Courtesy of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Gift of Mrs. Robert W. de Forest, 1933.

Laymen To Lead Services

THE LAYMEN of the Presbyterian Church of East Stroudsburg will conduct worship tomorrow morning at 11.

The officers of the Men's Council have secured the president of the Men's Council of Lehigh Presbytery, C. T. J. Willis to deliver the sermon.

Willis is a resident of Stroudsburg and an officer of the Presbyterian Church of that borough.

He has chosen as his topic the words of Christ, "You Shall Be My Witnesses."

William Horst, president of the local Men's Council, has named Frank Randall, LeRoy Kleinle, Douglas Schoonover, Albert Caputo and Samuel Vanaken to assist with the duties of the pulpit.

Carroll Veney, chairman of the Council's Committee on Publicity, reports that every man of the church has been made aware of the event.

Berlin Fence Violation Aired

BERLIN (AP) — Berlin's barbed wire fence was the scene of what authorities called a serious border violation early Thursday when a squad of 10 East Berlin police broke into a West Berlin house, apparently in search of one of their comrades who defected.

"They pounded at the door and threatened to shoot if we didn't open," said the divorced wife of a grade-crossing guard living there with her three children. "Then they broke in, and we fled up to the attic. They all had tommy guns and started searching the house."

The woman said her daughter found an old bugle in the attic and blew it with all her strength until West Berlin police showed up. The East Berliners then withdrew.

Art Of Seeing

By MARCIA CLAPP

DO YOU ever see the design on the plate from which you are eating? Is it as interesting as this Pennsylvania Dutch plate?

Here is a valiant soldier charging on a spirited horse. With the smoke rising from the pistol he raises his sword ready for battle. Every line is vigorous and clearly defines each detail with simplicity and skill. All lines lead to the left which not only intensifies the action but indicates that the artist might have been left-handed.

This slipware plate was made around 1800 and is attributed to David Spinner who lived from 1758 to 1811 in Bucks County, Pa. Although it is unsigned it has style which is characteristic of his pottery.

After this plate was shaped from red clay it was dried enough to remain rigid. While still damp it was covered with a thin layer of yellow slip. The mixture of slip was made by stirring clay and water to the consistency of thick cream. Slipware is thus the name for the process of applying one colored clay to another clay of different color.

When the slip was settled into the clay plate a design is cut through the slip revealing the colored clay beneath. This technique requires a steady hand as a mistake is most difficult to correct. The freedom of stroke in this plate shows a mastery of the craft of cutting slipware which is called sgraffito.

After the design has been incised the plate is dried slowly to avoid cracking. When perfectly dry it is placed in a kiln and fired to the hardness of a brick. Powdered glaze is ground with water and applied in a thin layer to the plate. It is fired again giving a glassy surface which prevents porosity and makes the ware suitable for use.

The Pennsylvania German potters made dishes that were handsome in color and decorated with sincere artistry. Their pottery was used daily and was a constant feast for their eyes. Are you fortunate enough to possess one of these plates which are part of our great American heritage?

'Promising Forest Future'

PENNSYLVANIA, with growing forests occupying more land than all other land uses combined, faces a "promising forest future," especially for the next generation.

According to a new compilation of facts and figures on the state's timber resources, "Pennsylvania Forest Facts," just published by the Pennsylvania Forest Industries Committee, points out that the demand for wood and wood products throughout the state and nation is mounting. While the demand is increasing, rejuvenated Keystone State forests, covering 52.7 per cent of the land area of the state, are growing far more wood each year than is being removed for use or lost to natural causes.

The new forest report says that Penn's Woods are growing approximately 137 per cent more wood each year than is being cut or lost. The statistics show timber growth of 677 million cubic feet in trees five inches in diameter or larger. Of this vast amount of wood, only 154.2 million cubic feet is cut for use, while another 96 million cubic feet is lost to natural causes—fire, insects and disease. Thus, there is annual net surplus of 426.8 million cubic feet.

Dairymen Elect Pennsylvanians

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Two Pennsylvanians, Stewart Wrtman of Watertown and Adrian Sharpe of Waterford, Thursday were elected to the 24-man board of directors of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association. The league represents 17,000 members in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. It is holding its 12th annual meeting here.

Elgin Co. Gets

NEW YORK (AP)—More than $4 million in new government orders for missile work have been received by Elgin National Watch Co., Elgin, Ill. The bulk of the work is scheduled for the company's microelectronics plant in Chatsworth, Calif.
